In the school report the total expenses for the year were $5481.39; the resources are $1955.85, and the liabilities $3063.94.

Fire Department's Benefit.

The entertainment given by the ladies of the village for the benefit of the newly established fire department was a complete success. The supper of baked beans, brown bread, pies, cake, etc., was excellent and the Grange hall was well filled with an audience who listened to the reading and singing of "Ma Dussier's" songs, with evident pleasure and also to the presentation of a short play entitled "Mrs. Willis' will." The costuming was an important part and added much to the enjoyment of the spectators and it is generally conceded that "Ma Dussier's" can't be beaten. Solos by Misses Jennie Newell and Effie Kent elicited prolonged applause, as did also a trio by Misses Sargent, Willey and Kent. The choruses were mostly the old fashioned ones we love to hear and ended with "My Old Kentucky Home," after which a promenade was enjoyed by a large number. The net proceeds were over $25.

No Right to Uglines.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Flint Bros.' Drug Store.

Mrs. J. E. Jewett.

Mrs. J. E. Jewett, of Metuchen, N. J., suffered for nearly half a century from rheumatism, and the manner in which she was cured is best told in her own words. She says:

"The pain was all in my knee joints and was at times almost unbearable. I was unable to go out of doors and could only hobble about the house with a cane."

"I finally bought some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and before I had used the first box I noticed an improvement. After I had taken two boxes I could walk without a cane, and went out of doors freely. Well, I continued using the pills and by the time I had taken thirty-six boxes I was entirely well, and suffered no pain at all."

(Signed) Mrs. J. E. Jewett.
